

THE ELECTION.—THE RESULT.

It is with joy inexpressible that we announce this morning the overwhelming defeat of the Radicals in Shelby county, and the triumphant success of the Democratic party. The majority is large and decisive. It will, in all probability, reach fifteen hundred, being a gain of twenty hundred. The extent of this victory can hardly be overestimated. Radicalism has been routed in the very citadel of its strength, and we see the beginning of a brighter day for our people. The corruption carnival has at last approached its end, in all the odor of bad reputation. For a short time despotic rule may prevail, but the earth as certain persons of disrepute were doomed in olden time, to wander along the banks of the Styx, imploring in vain a passage over the river. But in Shelby county and in Tennessee it is dead—emphatically, unquestionably and irrevocably dead—dead beyond all hope of resurrection. We congratulate our friends, the country and our candidates on the result. Words can scarcely convey our gratification at a victory so complete; at the glorious triumph of Ray and Brown, and Stephens, who nobly and gallantly braved the storm. Great praise has been well earned by our standard-bearers for the boldness, energy, perseverance, industry and skill with which they fought for our splendid victory. The shameful desertion of men that were thought to be true caused many to recoil and to lose confidence in those who were really true. But our candidates stood up and faced the enemy, inspired the Democratic hosts with hope, and the result is that the Radicals are—

"They came as first as forest deer,
We drove them back as tame."
The agitation of the political waters, by the death and the dying agonies of the foul monster of Radicalism, is fearful to behold. Bad faith and pollution is cast up in every direction. The flesh-pots, whose rich contents and fragrant aromas for the future as completely out of their reach as the luxuries which were denied to Tantalus. The impotent rage of the buffeted carpet-bagger in the condition which gives relief to Democratic life. Thank God! Tennessee once more free—rid of the persecutors of her people; rid of the plunderers; rid of those who have built up a wall of hatred between two races whose interests are mutual, and dependent upon each other. The election yesterday shows that there is a touch of sanity in the "Volunteer State," the proud old Commonwealth which cannot be annihilated by the abhorred enemies of our noble people. We have survived outrages and spoliation and when posterity hears the tale of our sufferings and persecutions, and how, after long and patient endurance our people arose in their majesty and wrath, snatched the fetters which chained their limbs and crushed their enemies into dust, they will be proud of their ancestry and hold in scorn and contempt the memory of the dead tyrants and the names of their living descendants.

Especially are we rejoiced at the defeat yesterday of that obnoxious man of political corruption—T. A. Ryan. He has required the friendship of the Democratic party with the basest ingratitude. His apostasy can find no parallel save in the fable of the frozen viper that stung to the vitals the household of the honest farmer that had warmed its life in May, 1869, the Democratic party found Ryan poor and penniless. They nominated and elected him to the office of Attorney of the Municipal Court. At the recent Democratic County Convention, T. A. Ryan's name was presented for nomination for the honorable and responsible position of Probate Judge. Against the too distrustful and confiding Democracy gave him its confidence and became within two or three votes of receiving the nomination. He pledged himself to abide the decision of the Convention. But it seems Ryan is a kind of "Night Blooming Cereus," for on Wednesday he appeared as an "Independent" candidate for Judge of the Second Circuit Court, but on Thursday morning he blossoms into a Radical holy-hock with his name and names of Barbour Lewis, Channing Richards and H. E. Hudson, a trio of monuments of turpitude and treachery. It is useless for us to say with what scorn the triumphant Democracy will look upon one who began his career in our midst by hugging to the skirts of the Democratic party, who was taken up as a foster child and literally raised from want by its patronage. When afterward promoted far beyond his merits—who, after pledging his word to the Democratic Convention to abide by its decision, then basely forfeited his honor and confessed himself wanting in veracity by going over to the enemy and soliciting and receiving their support—was the latter case a man whose career exhibits these prominent traits of ingratitude, mendacity and political degradation, all true Democrats feel nothing but infinite contempt.

BALTIMORE.
A Great Railroad Fraud.
BALTIMORE, August 4.—There was a rumor yesterday of an over-issuance of stock of the Northern Virginia Railroad Company, commonly known as the Parkersburg branch of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, which was leased and worked by the latter company. The over-issue is stated in the morning papers to amount to $300,000, made by the Secretary of the company, W. L. Crawford, who resigned. The amount of the over-issue is supposed to have been $200,000, and the directors have not concluded the examination. The over-issue is all hypothecated in Baltimore at about fifteen dollars on the share, the par value of which is fifty dollars. Crawford, secretary of the company, is stated, is entrusted to the secretary black certificate of stock, bearing his signature.

Enquirer was in two mile heats at Long Branch yesterday. Time 8:40. R. B. Connolly won the 11 mile race in 2:39. Repture was the mile race in heavy rain in 1:20.
